Property Description

A very special, one-of-a-kind house with direct access to turquoise color Mediterranean waters. Almost entirely sea facing and covering over 800 square meters between indoor and outdoor spaces and terraces. Central air-conditioning with independent controls in each room guarantees perfect temperatures. Notwithstanding this feature, the house tends to benefit from a cool and mild sea breeze during summers given its front-line position. An over two thousand year old olive tree next to the car parking area makes for an impressive entrance. The main house includes four double bedrooms, each with sea views and an en-suite bathroom. There is also a living room with over four meter high ceilings, a dining area for ten or more people, separate quarters for a maid, and a chef's kitchen where amazing meals can be served for an additional fee. Outside, there are numerous terraces with seating areas and stunning sea views, an infinity pool and over two acres of forest land for quiet strolls.
